by the ERC funded project PLATINUM ERC STG 2014 n 636983 in response to Tiziano Dorandi's recollections of a series of unpublished notes on Latin texts on papyrus among these was an in progress edition of the Latin rolls from Herculaneum together with Marichal's intuition that one of them had to be ascribed to a certain Annaeus Seneca. PLATINUM followed the unpublished intuition by Robert Marichal as one path of investigation in its own research and work working on the Latin p. Herc. 1067 led to confirm Marichal's intuitions and to go beyond it p. Herc. 1067 is the only extant direct witness to Seneca the Elder's Historiae bringing a new and important chapter of Latin literature arise out of a charred papyrus is significant the present volume is made up of two complementary sections each of which contains seven contributions they are in close dialogue with each other as looking at the same literary matter from several points of view yields undeniable advantages and represents an innovative and fruitful step in Latin literary criticism these two sections express the two different but interlinked axes along which the contributions were developed on one side the focus is on the starting point of the debate namely the discovery of the papyrus roll transmitting the Historiae of Seneca the Elder and how such a discovery can be integrated with prior knowledge about this historiographical work on the other side there is a broader view on early imperial Roman historiography to which the new perspectives opened by the rediscovery of Seneca the Elder's Historiae greatly contribute guercino s paintings and his patrons politics in early modern italy examines how the seventeenth century italian painter giovanni francesco barbieri better known as il guercino instilled the political ideas of his patrons into his paintings as it focuses on eight works showing religious scenes and scenes taken from roman history this volume bridges the gap between social and cultural history and the history of art untangling the threads of art politics and religion during the time of the thirty years war a prolific painter guercino enjoyed the patronage of such luminaries as pope gregory xv cardinals serra ludovisi spada and magalotti and the french secretary of state la vrilli while scholarly research has been devoted to guercino s oeuvre this book is the first to place his works squarely in the context of the political and social circumstances of seventeenth century italy stressing the points of view and agendas of his powerful patrons what
